

The 106th Session of the International Labour Conference was held from 5–16 June at the headquarters of the United Nations among other venues in Geneva. Mr. Gaku Hashimoto, State Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare of Japan, attended and spoke at the conference.

State Minister Hashimoto making a statement during the Plenary

State Minister Hashimoto speaking during a meeting of the ILO Asia Pacific Group Labour Ministers

State Minister Hashimoto meeting for talks with ILO Director-General, Mr. Guy Ryder